

The Association of Mayors and Presidents of Federation of Municipalities of the Drôme Department (AMD)

have the pleasure to invite you to participate in a conference

chaired by Mr. Jean-Jack QUEYRANNE

President of the Rhône-Alpes Region

and former national Minister

Exchange of views between elected representatives, local stakeholders and national and European experts on:

“Making room for both high-quality agriculture and urbanisation ”

9:00 am

Registration and welcoming of participants

9:30 am

Introduction & opening remarks

Didier GUILLAUME, Senator, President of the Drôme Departmental Council

Michel GREGOIRE, Vice-president of the Regional Council in charge of Agriculture and Rural Development, President of the PURPLE network.

10:00 am – 12:15 pm

Conference with the following speakers:

Martin VANIER, Geography Professor, Joseph Fourier University in Grenoble, Director of studies for the Academie cooperative (Paris)

Anne-Claire VIAL, President of « Sol & Civilisation », President of the Drôme Chamber of Agriculture

Gilbert BOUCHET, Departmental Councillor, Mayor of Tain l’Hermitage

Bernard SOULAGE, Vice-President of the Regional Council in charge of Europe and International Relations

Gérard LERAS, Special counsellor for the Land & Property policy of the Regional Council

Elena DI BELLA, Director of the Mountain and Rural Development Service of the Turin Province

Marjorie JOUEN, Notre Europe Advisor- Jacques Delors Institute

12:15 – 12:30 pm

Review of the discussions & Conference conclusions

Martin DE BRUIJN, European Commission, DG Regional and Urban Policy, Competence Centre Inclusive Growth, Urban and Territorial Development, Policy Analyst

Michel GREGOIRE, Vice-president of the Regional Council in charge of Agriculture and Rural Development, President of the PURPLE network.

Moderators:

Bruno de BOISGELIN, Director of AMD

&

Hilary LOWSON, Secretary-General of PURPLE